

We believe at The Paul R. Brown Leadership Academy that all of our cadets will transform into responsible citizens. We are committed to providing access to academic knowledge and achievement through through rigor and mastery of the curriculum content. This will be achieved through the use of traditional teaching methods while using technology to prepare them for the 21st century.

Our values express the personal qualities that are especially important to your organization—in personnel and students.

Loyalty

Enthusiasm

Accountability

Duty

Endurance

Respect

Selfless Service

Honor

Integrity

Personal Courage